"To get up when you are down, to fight more intensely when you are struggling; to put in the extra effort when you are in sheer pain, to comeback when nobody expects you to, and to stand tall when everyone is pulling you down are what make a champion."

VISIT OUR ATHLETIC FACILITIES

The Mirenda "Center for Sport, Spiritually and Character Development" is a state-of-the-art facility that serves as home to the university's 21 NCAA teams. The men's and women's basketball teams and the volleyball team play home games in the main gymnasium, which seats approximately 1,200 spectators.

The 72,000-square-foot building includes a grand foyer with impressive exhibits that feature five themes that connect sports to the Franciscan tradition: Play, Respect, Beauty, Balance and Reflection. The Mirenda Center houses the "Institute for Sport Spirituality and Character Development" and the Athletic Department and is fully equipped with weight and cardio rooms.

The Bruder Athletic Fields are located in close proximity to the Mirenda Center and the Living and Learning Center residence halls. The Bruder baseball and softball fields were renovated and reopened for the 2013 season and now have seating for fans, press boxes and spacious dugouts. The men's and women's soccer, lacrosse and field hockey teams play on a turf field that has seating for more than 400 fans and also has lights.

IceWorks of Aston, a 1,000 seat facility approximately one mile from campus, serves as home for both the men's and women's ice hockey teams. The men's and women's tennis teams play on the lighted Ethel Sergeant Clark Smith Fund Memorials Courts.

2014 PREVIEW

Neumann will move into the 2014 season under the direction of new head coach Alicia MacGlaughlin, but the Knights will have the same goal in mind, reclaim the CSAC Title and compete in the NCAA Tournament.

The team will have some big shoes to fill on the court as four year starters Katelin Kuklantz and Gianna Jones graduated. The team is up for the challenge. Kat Wolf (Williamstown, N.J.) will be running the offense as the starting setter. Danielle Kwapicz (Upper Chichester, Pa.) and Elaina Shooster (Springfield, Pa.) will both continue to ground the serve receive and defense. Julia Malseed (Milmont Park, Pa.) will continue her role as the libero. Kelsey D'Imperio (Sewell, N.J) is key to the offense as the top middle hitter. Anna Waltz (Plymouth Meeting, Pa.), Faith Cook (Tulsa, Okla.) and Sarah Sanderson (Portland, Ore.) will continue to push for starting positions.

Amanda McLeer will be back on the court after an ACL injury last season. Transfer Jen Harasim and freshmen Alison Frey and Meghan Czapka will all look to make their mark on the Neumann Volleyball program.

Like past seasons, this year's schedule is packed with tough opponents to help push the players and the team to be better and more competitive every time they step onto the court. The Knights kick off 2014 on August 30 in Boston at the Wheaton College Quad. Neumann will host its annual two tournaments, beginning with the Knights Invitational on September 12-13 followed by the Knights Fall Classic on October 10-11.
